NEPTUNE TRANSITS: PREDICTIVE ASTROLOGY – TECHNIQUES FOR PREDICTING THE FUTURE

Back to Predictive Astrology Main Page

Overview:

Neptune takes approximately 164 years to come full circle—too long to complete a cycle through our natal charts.

As such, this slow-moving planet's transits are long-lasting, and each transit takes its time to unfold. As Neptune transits a point in our chart, retrogrades back over it, and then hits it again in direct motion, it imparts its own special wisdom upon the point in question—the areas of lives and parts of our psyches ruled by that point.

How Neptune affects our lives depends very much on whether we resist its influences or we try to work with the planet of illusion and spirituality. It is common for Neptune's influence to be a confusing one in the first portion of the transit. Neptune's ultimate Whichever part of our lives and psyches Neptune touches, especially by hard transit, is an area where we may feel “up in the air” and confused in the initial stages of the transit. Boundaries are unclear, commitments are elusive, and perception is confused.

If the Sun is involved, we don’t know where we are heading, and we have a hard time defining what we want and where we want to go. If Venus is involved, our love life is unusual or confused.

As the transit progresses, and certainly by the time it is over, we should have a more refined understanding of the affected areas of our lives. What begins as confusion can eventually actually augment our perception and our understanding.

Sometimes, people experience a burnout of sorts that eventually leads to taking a different path—often a more spiritually rewarding and fulfilling one. Neptune acts to dissolve what it touches.

The following are interpretations of Neptune’s transits to planets and points. Note that alternate meanings are indicated by a * and +.

Neptune-Sun Transits

Neptune transits conjunct Sun Your personal sense of reality changes dramatically during the course of this transit. You are more sensitive than ever, and by transit’s end, you may tap into your devoted nature. There is a strong desire for peace and harmony and perhaps some sense that you have to make sacrifices for that end.

The body itself is sensitive, and you must be cautious with drugs. You may behave in an impractical manner, or you may be vulnerable to deception or betrayal from others. You in which you want to head.

It can be a time of illusions and confusion, or it can be a very inspired period! Recognizing that you need more on a spiritual level can help you handle the transition more constructively.

Look for Leo in your natal chart, as the Sun rules Leo, and this is an area of life that will be directly affected by the transit (in addition to the house where the transit actually takes place).

Neptune transits sextile or trine Sun

At this time, a higher purpose to your life is what you seek, and you rely more heavily upon your intuition to achieve it. You could find that your intuition is subtly enhanced this year—you often find yourself in the right place at the right time, probably because your hunches are more likely to be correct.

This aspect softens your disposition somewhat as you tune into your imaginative and artistic side. You may often rely on your instinctual judgment.

This is a good year for self-improvement programs or efforts. The need to “get away from it all” — for some peace and quiet now and again — will be strong. You project a more sensitive—even mysterious—persona this year, which can attract pleasantly unusual circumstances (and people) into your life. You will want to reserve time alone—away from the hectic pace of life—for reflection, prayer, and meditation. Creativity runs high now.

Neptune transits square or opposition Sun

You are more vulnerable now to influence and illusion. Self-deception may be your biggest “enemy” during this period of your life, and for some, deception from others might be a theme now.

impractical manner, or you may be vulnerable to deception or betrayal from others. You may undergo a crisis of identity during the initial stages of this transit, and your experiences may lead you to a more refined understanding of yourself and the direction in which you want to head.

This can be a time of illusions and confusion, or it can be a very inspired time. Recognizing that you need more on a spiritual level can help you handle the transition more constructively.

Energy levels may be low or up and down, and you might be more inclined towards laziness or passivity—just letting things happen without fighting back. You might miss out on opportunities because of this approach to life. Placing faith in something higher than you is one thing, but if taken too far, you might regret letting life pass you by one day.

You are more idealistic than usual, which can cause a few problems if you're not careful. You could be experiencing confusion about what you want from life, where you are headed, and how to go about satisfying your ego.

Some of you might feel that you've lost your edge or will to fight and take action. Some will be avoiding responsibilities which can negatively impact their lives. There is a reason behind this "identity crisis"—you are learning to let go of ego attachments. Your self-image is being reworked, and you are becoming more sensitive to a greater, perhaps more spiritual, sense of purpose.

Neptune-Moon Transits

Neptune transits to the Moon directly affect the feelings, the public image, and personal popularity. Other people and things affected by Neptune are the mother, important women in the native's life, domestic life, and the home.

life at this time. You can be emotionally restless, but what it is you actually want is hard to pinpoint. You are more sensitive than ever, and through the course of this transit, your emotional life opens up to incorporate more refined, subtle and understated perceptions.

With this transit, you are “in tune” and pick up far more from your environment than usual. In fact, this can feel very much like emotional “commotion” until you accept that the essential purpose of this transit is to open up your feelings in order for you to ultimately become more compassionate, emotionally aware, and devoted.

As the emotional pipelines open up and the emotional walls come down, you can become more vulnerable to deception. Your ability to discriminate is compromised, simply because Neptune’s energy lacks definition and boundaries. Some measure of caution is advised.

Some unusual or unexpected problems with the mother, important women in your life, and/or your domestic life may occur during the course of the transit. There can be health issues that are psychosomatic in nature or hard to diagnose, although these are generally not serious. Your dreams are likely to become more vivid, and you can be quite susceptible to mood swings.

What does the Moon rule in your chart? Look to the house(s) of your natal chart with Cancer on the cusp for areas of your life where Neptune is acting to refine. Look to planets in Cancer in your chart to see other parts of your personality that Neptune is now infusing with spirituality and sensitivity.

Neptune transits sextile Moon

There is a wonderful sense of peace surrounding you during the course of this transit. You are more open and accepting on an emotional level. This emotional serenity, although subtle, helps you solve problems naturally and intuitively. Your dream life is richer than usual, and your imagination is boundless.

Neptune transits square Moon

away to the point that those who support and care for you are neglected or hurt. Walk a careful line when it comes to dreams versus realities. The dreams can be bad.

Your sensitivity and imagination increase tremendously at this time, and you are much more easily influenced by images, the psychic and emotional energy of other people, and the psychic atmosphere around you.

You may find yourself wanting to retreat from the abrasiveness, ugliness, or harsher realities of life, and to seek solace and comfort in nature, spiritual company, meditation, or your own inner world.

Strange moods and feelings that you may never have experienced before come and go during this time period. Part of this is that you are absorbing others' emotions and/or subtle psychic energy. Your sensitivity, receptivity, and empathy is so great right now that you may need to avoid negative, intensely emotional people, or even films or music depicting negative and unhappy imagery.

You are opening psychically at this time and it's very important to do it in a balanced way, and in a positive, supportive, or at least non-threatening atmosphere.

Positive Potentials:

Increased compassion and sympathetic awareness of others. Opening to the mystical, subtle, intangible realms and finding great love and beauty there. Mystical oneness. Connecting with the divine feminine.

Negative Potentials:

It is very easy to lose a sense of proportion and of what is real at this time. A confusion between archetypal or inner reality and physical reality. Tendencies toward addictions and dependencies increase. Self delusion.

Use well-grounded and trusted friends or advisors to get a perspective on your thoughts and experiences now. Live a well-balanced life that includes regular contact with nature, physical exercise, adequate diet and rest, and some kind of regular routine that grounds you in everyday life. Keep a journal of your fantasies, dreams, visions.

Simple psychic protection techniques, such as imagining yourself surrounded by an egg of white or golden light, and filling that space with positive energy, or praying and affirming that you are surrounded by the love and protection of a god, or similar visualizations and prayers could be done daily. — From our Time Line Forecast Report.

Neptune transits trine Moon

An opportunity to use your imagination to improve your living environment or beautify your surroundings. You may feel very idealistic about your friends, especially someone who is younger or who could use your help. Others give you ideal support.

During this period you have a heightened sensitivity to everything around you – at times an almost mystical sense of oneness or communion. Because of your increased sympathetic awareness of others' unspoken feelings and states of being, you feel more compassion and a greater desire to assist them. You may even find yourself talking to plants and listening to what the birds are telling you.

You may also experience more clearly the powerful affects of music, color, and atmospheres on your mood and sense of well-being. This is a good time to learn about feng shui, the Chinese art of creating harmonious, life-enhancing spaces to live or work in. Intuitive or psychic development courses, meditation, spiritual healing, dream work, and other such teachings or practices would benefit you a great deal at this time also.

Positive Potentials:

Increased sensitivity and openness to subtle and spiritual realities and spiritual guidance. Feeling emotionally and spiritually connected to all creation. Greater forgiveness and imagery, or healing is enhanced.

Negative Potentials:

There are few negatives associated with this cycle, unless you are already overly idealistic, fanciful, and impractical, in which case these tendencies may be somewhat more pronounced than usual.

Remedies and Suggestions:

Begin paying attention to your dreams, fantasies feelings, subtle impressions, inklings, and thoughts that seem unusual or unrelated to your usual way of thinking. Keep a journal to record these in, as they may contain inner guidance and creative seeds for future projects.

Say yes to your “silly” desire to paint, or write poetry, or to use your imagination in creative ways that may be new to you. Translate your empathy and charitable feelings into acts of generosity and kindness. — From our Time Line Forecast Report.

Neptune transits opposite Moon

*Emotions run very high and deep now. Strange, unusual, even obsessive, feelings grip you now. These feelings are often irrational and out of character, so you are likely to squelch them; they seem childish, exceedingly sentimental, foolish, and out of proportion.

You might gloss over details in favor of the bigger picture, and you can find it hard to stick to systems or schedules. Even normally punctual people might find it hard to be on time during this transit.

If your work involves communications, advertising, publishing, or languages, you are able to breathe new life into these channels with increased intuition and imagination. Your writing and/or speech may become more poetic.

During this time, you may encounter mysterious, confused, unusual, or spiritual experiences surrounding Mercury-ruled people and things (such as siblings, neighbors, travel, studies, and so forth).

What does Mercury rule in your chart? Look to the houses of your natal chart with Gemini and Virgo on the cusp for areas of your life where Neptune is acting to refine. Look to planets in Gemini and Virgo in your chart to see other parts of your personality that Neptune is now infusing with spirituality and sensitivity.

At the very least, you have your finger on the pulse of what others want to hear and learn. This can mean that you are especially adept at advertising, but it also tremendously improves your relationships with others.

Your senses dramatically heighten in general, although attention to detail may be lacking. You may take up—or renew—an interest in the psychic or divining arts. Your speech may slow down as a reflection of your increased sensitivity to the world around you.

Neptune transits square or opposite Mercury

This transit can point to a lack of clarity and objectivity. You might make embarrassing errors, neglect important details, or you could carry some delusions now. It may be difficult for others to understand you, or you might be communicating in such a way that you are not clear. During the period of this transit, you are more imaginative and easily swayed by the opinions of others.

You can be highly creative and inspired under this influence, but you could also be overly sensitive, touchy, or impractical now. You might find it especially challenging to follow routines, to concentrate or focus on monotonous tasks or work, and to focus on academic subjects that require attention to detail or rote learning.

For example, you might throw yourself into a new romance that others warn you is not realistic. Force yourself to consider practical matters, even though you may resist it while opening your heart to new possibilities. And, while opening your heart to new possibilities, be sure to use some common sense.

Sometimes, this transit makes us so vulnerable that we can too easily be taken advantage of or deceived, and this can happen with money or love, and sometimes both. There can be a lot of sadness as this transit can stimulate a deep yearning for something more than “just ordinary” life.

We might attract challenging situations or relationships into our lives because of a deep longing for more drama or glamor in our lives or for a soulmate connection.

As you chase something different, unusual, and otherworldly, you may lack discrimination in your choices of purchases, people, and pleasures.

With the opposition, you might feel challenged by others on the level of values, love, or finances. You may feel distraught, lonely, or misunderstood by others as you seek something more from your life.

You may be overlooking important details with money, and neglect of material concerns could impact your life now. It’s not the best time to lend out money, to sweep material concerns under the carpet, to buy on credit, or to avoid paying attention to bank/tax matters.

When it comes to matters of the heart, the things you yearn for may not be mirrored in your experiences or romantic partner. Your soul now yearns for a more spiritual or romantic bond. Similarly for singles, your romantic and love needs are evolving.

For all, it’s a period in which a no-nonsense, overly practical, or overly sexual approach

Neptune-Mars Transits

Neptune transits to Mars affect your drive and desire nature, strength, as well as your ability to assert yourself.

Neptune transits conjunct Mars Although your focus may be compromised and physical energy scattered, there is a strong potential for you to improve your intuition and magnetic powers. You may be in the right place at the right time.

On the other hand, you can be extremely inspired if your personality is extroverted, and/or if you work with Neptune instead of against it. A general description of transiting Neptune – excerpt from the Sky Log report:

quality to the existential stew. Close your eyes; there's a world in there. That's Neptune, the planet of consciousness itself. Now open your eyes.

There's a world out there too, and it's hard to ignore it. In fact, the outer world has become so pressing in its demands that you've partly lost contact with the inner one. But Neptune, transiting through sensitive territories for you now, is fixing that. Your inner world is so full it's brimming over, overflowing its banks into your daily life. If you resist the process, you'll find a host of Neptune problems plaguing you: losing the car keys, forgetting to pay the electric bill, having the attention span of a three-year-old on a sugar jag.

But there's an alternative: trust the process. Slow down. Meditate. Let the images come. Mould opinions. Breathe in, breathe out. Why? Because your unconscious mind has a message for you. It has to do with the possibility of happiness for you over the next few years, about how old sources of joy are drying up and — critically — about new ones you must learn to recognize. How do you receive the message? You stop resisting. You simply let it in. That's Neptune in the broad sense."
