

Mercury – Mars Aspects: Conjunct Sextile Trine Square Opposition

MERCURY CONJUNCT MARS

You have the energy to act on your ideas, and you're very often ready and willing to put your plans into motion. With your independent-mindedness, you go your own way and are often ahead of others in your thinking.

With this aspect in your birth chart, you readily get your point across. You're not one to back down from a debate. Strong-minded and decisive, you're straightforward and direct and sometimes blunt or insensitive with your words. Your enthusiasm is marked, and you're especially observant, noticing far more details than most people. Mental stimulation and challenges are important to you. However, it can be hard to turn your mind off when you need peace!

Problems with impulsive decisions and sharp words are possible. There can be tension with neighbors or siblings and impatience with mechanical processes. Unafraid of stirring up a bit of controversy, you believe in your ideas. You also need to have the last word!

You are at your best when you learn to use your sharp, quick intellect to boost your life rather than allow it to run ahead of you and cause problems for you.

Alternate Interpretation:

You are curious, enthusiastic, and energetic in your communications. You enjoy a good debate and have a competitive nature, particularly when it comes to mental games. You can be quite impatient with vagueness or slowness in others, preferring to keep things simple and direct. You are excellent at getting to the heart of a subject and easily rid yourself of wasteful activities, and this means you can be especially productive.

At times, you can be aggressive or overly blunt in your self-expression. You can also take things very personally, and your defensiveness can make it challenging for others to engage in healthy dialogue with you. You are forthright, and this can be refreshing to some and offensive to others.

You have an enthusiastic, incisive and energetic mind. You are practical and compulsive. You think quickly and draw your inferences from empirical observation. Your life suffers

You are a fighter for a cause whether or not there is a fight, or for that matter, a cause. Your mind is on fire so you often express yourself with anger. You have a natural talent for occupations involving change and physical movement. — Interpretation sample from the In-Depth Profile report.

You can be quick on the trigger regarding verbal reactions to others, and you are not always courteous, discreet, or tactful when expressing your opinions. You often take things quite personally, and your defensiveness can sometimes make it hard for others to have peaceful or productive conversations with you. However, you're passionate about your ideas, decisive, and mentally brave.

You might often compete for the floor when expressing your ideas, thoughts, and opinions. Stirring up controversy with what you say or how you say it can be frequent, whether you intend to do so or not.

You are very quick with your perceptions, and you might speak quickly and move quickly as well. You are an energetic worker and excellent at rallying for what you believe in.

You are very witty and often sarcastic. You are quick to offer an opinion and express your thoughts, not always with sensitivity. Some with this aspect in their charts enjoy storytelling, word games, and playing with ideas. You love a good debate but sometimes turn conversations that needn't be stressful into arguments.

Ideally, with time and experience, you learn to relax your mind enough to use your great mental energy and passion in ways that benefit you rather than get in your way.

It's a good idea to watch for communicating your opinions or reactions too soon since there is some tendency for others to misunderstand or jump to conclusions about you. You could too often find others gossiping about or misrepresenting you. Also possible is that you attract opposition from others or attract people into your life who are nitpicky, unusually opinionated, or critical of you.

Your mind is very sharp and critical, and you are insatiably curious. Your mental courage is admirable. Your mind can be so quick that you are nervous, easily stressed, often over-stimulated, and prone to headaches. Impatience, especially while driving or operating machinery, could lead to mishaps. Extremely observant, you notice far more details than most people. Ideally, your natal chart has helpful other aspects and factors that calm and center you.

MERCURY SEXTILE OR TRINE MARS

Your mind is very restless and you will never cease to learn. You are quick, practical, perceptive, brave and can easily detect the weaknesses of others. You are very creative and you can excel both in writing and in manual arts. You are very secure and firm in your decisions without being aggressive. Your mind never rests and it is important that you keep yourself active.

You make an expressive and lively conversationalist, and you generally mean what you say and say what you mean. You have the ability to speak truths without coming across as too blunt or offensive. You often make the best decisions at the very last minute!

You can be very productive when you're focused, spending less time on work that others labor over. You often take "busy-ness" in stride. You are alert and aware, and can easily turn ideas into workable projects. Your communications are refreshingly direct and to the point, although not especially sympathetic unless other factors in your chart mitigate this trait.

sextile can call upon these traits when needed, and those with the trine between the Mercury and Mars have incorporated the traits of the aspect into their personalities, expressing them naturally and consistently.
